

Awake Canada!

In Bible days, Jabin, King of Canaan oppressed Israel. For twenty years long years, this king and his 900 chariots of iron did whatever they wanted to the people of Israel. In response to the cries of help from Israel to YeHoVaH, God called a prophetess to announce His plans to set things in order. Thus, Deborah, inspired by the Living God, went to Barak, the son of Abinoam. She commanded him to arise, go to mount Tabor, and take with him 10,000 men of Naphtali and Zebulun. Upon his act of obedience, God promised to draw the captain of King Jabin's army, named Sisera, to a river Kishon. There God would deliver the enemy into Barak's hand.

Barak obeyed the Word of the Lord. He called for the men to fight and so they came. They ascended to the top of Mount Tabor to wait for the enemy to arrive on the scene. God drew the foe as He promised. Deborah, Barak, and 10,000 men readied on the top of the Mount Tabor waited. Then, Deborah gave the command to head down the hill to retrieve the land given to them by the God of Israel. Moving rapidly towards that inevitable encounter, YHVH showed up on the scene. The heaven's opened pouring forth its water into the dried river near the base of the mountain, the very river Sisera and his mighty men chose to attack those standing on the mountain. That river became a place of mud, a death trap to Sisera, his innumerable chariots and fighting men. Sisera, although escaping from that scene, nevertheless, died by day's end as a woman named, Jael took the life of Sisera, fulfilling the Word of YeHoVaH given by Deborah to Barak.

This Bible battles speaks of a time to act, a time to move out of fear of the enemy. It speaks of a time to trust in God and in His power. It shows great bravery and soldiers for God faced the times and seasons and moved forward to take back their land. After that battle, they retained their land, cultivated it, ate its goods fruit and had peace for a long time.

Today, Canada faces a very similar battle in that wicked unseen, unlabelled and unrecognized forces exist in this nation. Their goal is to shift Canada out of alignment with her end time destiny. That destiny, news reporters will never speak about; columnist will never write about; neither with TV film nor YouTube channels capture, however that destiny does exist. All who have eyes to see the realm of the spirit, they know the forces of whom I speak and understand the rapid pace at which they travel to move into places of power.

Nevertheless, God has a plan, a plan just as great, just as mighty, and just as powerful as the plan given to Deborah and Barak. To outline this plan in detail is not possible, now, for God alone reveals its specifics, but in faith, we can believe God for His miracle ending for a nation moving in deep trouble and turmoil.

Let the annals of heaven's history books record the song to be sung in these days:

"Then sang the faithful ones of Canada, the ones who believe to see Canada's God-given destiny arise:

Praise YeHoVaH for His arm stretches out to the faithful ones in this nation. In this day of trouble as the people of God arise, they willingly offer themselves to see Canada reach her end time destiny.

Hear all people, great and small, do you not know, God is not mocked! He is a mighty One, yes, even a mighty warrior, and He will have His Way. He has never been defeated, never will be! This battle for our nation and her end time destiny belongs to Him. He shall not pull back. His arm outstretches still.

Hear, all kings, and rulers, we, even the people of Canada with faith in the name of the Living God of Israel, sing unto His Name. We call upon His Name, YeHoVaH; too, for our God is mighty, He is the God of Israel.

O YeHoVaH, when You come out of Your place to fight on behalf of those who called upon Your Name, yes, when You march out with your army to bring Canada to her destiny, the earth trembles. Yes, the heavens fight too, just as you fought for others in days gone by. All mountains of resistance melted then from before YeHoVaH, and now, in this our day, every mountain of resistance named or unnamed, seen or hidden which resists our God, melts. With a Word, those mountains get into the Sea!

Awake! Awake Canada! In days when unrighteousness escalates and crimes against the Living God intensify, when evil reaches out its arm into almost every corner, when reason fails and leaders in places of power misinterpret the times and seasons, then it is time for the people of God to arise.

Indeed, Canada chose new gods, and so there was war in the gates! For those new gods, the people of God stand in repentance, interceding for forgiveness. Your faithful ones did not choose them! Your faithful ones did not bow down to them nor pray to them. Your faithful ones cried out to Living God, the God of Israel. Thus, the enemies' means of defense falls to the ground. Their door of vulnerability lay open.

Today, the hand of the favour of God shifts in a great way towards His people, to all who call upon His Name. YeHoVaH has heard the mocking. He has heard the sneers. He has heard the rejoicing of those who think they have won! Remember, our God shall not be mocked. Today, the shift took place. Today, the hand of the living God turned the tables upside down, just as Yeshua turned the tables over in the house, saying, Stop making My Father's house, a den of thieves. In other words, to our nation, we believers in God thank You for turning over the tables of unrighteousness in this land by Your mighty power. We say to the enemy, stop making this nation a fruitless wasteland, a place where mouths open like graves, with words of death that kill a people wounded and sore.

Bless YeHoVaH for His help comes to us! Those who willingly stand for righteousness in the land, who willingly cry out to the Living God for help are marked. Those who speak highly of the leaders that petition the King of Heaven are well noted. We speak praises to the God of Israel who sits in judgement righteously judging.

Let all who know this battle and its purpose rehearse the righteous acts of YeHoVaH, even the righteous acts extended towards the people of God in Canada, even those who stand with Israel in their time of need. Then shall the people of YeHoVaH go down to the gates, and for them shall they spring open. Then shall we indeed sing a song:

Awake, awake, all those who righteously speak of YeHoVaH. Awake, awake, utter a song: arise, you risen leaders of the Living God. Out of God's people, indeed come a root which rises with power against the very root of the spirit of Amalek. Indeed, these fight with all the forces of heaven behind them. Even the very stars in their courses fought against that spiritual foe who would take what does not belong to him but belongs to God!

So let all Your enemies perish, O YeHoVaH: but let them that love You be as the sun when he goeth forth in his might. For such as time as this, the righteous are called and do cry to you, YeHoVaH. Arise, Canada, and lead your captivity captive. YeHoVaH made the faithful of the land have dominion over the mighty.

All who remain loyal to YeHoVaH have dominion.

The river of praise to the Living God sweeps the unrighteous, sweeps away the ungodly, sweeps away the mockers of the living God. Stand faithful. Stand true.

Know the living God is on your side. Rejoice in Him, forevermore.
